2. It is felt that the Bank is aware of the Contractor's poor accounting system and its concern has been prompted by the Contractor's statements. In the event the Bank feels that the enclosed letter is not responsive to its inquiries of January 20, 1953, then the substance of [REDACTED] draft should be made known to the Bank and the Bank should also be informed that there is a possibility of a formal hearing before [REDACTED] and this Agency with respect to any monies due and owing
